Edward T. Hall Aquatic Center to Close for Annual Maintenance

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Aug. 1, 2018 – The Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation announces the Edward T. Hall Aquatic Center in Prince Frederick will be temporarily closed from Aug. 13 through Sept. 3 to complete annual maintenance and cleaning. The center will re-open Tuesday, Sept. 4 at 6 a.m.

During this time, pass holders may use Kings Landing Pool or Cove Point Pool. Kings Landing will offer extended lap swim hours from 6 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday, while the aquatic center is closed.

Participants may register for fall classes and activities in person at the Parks & Recreation main office in Prince Frederick, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., or by calling the Edward T. Hall Aquatic Center at 410-414-8350.

To learn more about Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation aquatic operations, visit online at www.CalvertCountyMd.gov/CalvertPools or call 410-535-1600, ext. 2649.
