Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation Offers Therman Gray Scholarship Fee Assistance Program

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Aug. 17, 2018 – The Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation is pleased to announce the Therman Gray Scholarship Fee Assistance Program is entering its fifth year helping low-income residents access parks and recreation programs including camps and classes at a reduced cost.

“It is a priority for us to ensure that Parks & Recreation programs are accessible to all Calvert County residents,” said Parks & Recreation Director Shannon Nazzal. “We are excited to continue offering this scholarship and look forward to providing recreational opportunities to citizens of all income levels.”

Applications are available online or by calling the Department of Parks & Recreation at 410-535-1600, ext. 2649. Applications can be submitted by emailing ParksandRecreation@calvertcountymd.gov or mailed to 175 Main St., Prince Frederick, MD, 20678, Attn: Parks & Recreation. Printed applications can also be hand delivered to the Parks & Recreation main office located at 205 Main St. in Prince Frederick.
