Calvert County Board of County Commissioners Seeks Applicants to Fill Board of Education Seat

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Dec. 12, 2018 – The Calvert County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) is seeking applicants to fill a vacancy for the Third Election District representative on the Calvert County Board of Education.

Kelly D. McConkey won the District 3 BOCC seat in the Nov. 6 elections, thereby creating a vacancy on the Board of Education upon his swearing in as a county commissioner. By state law, the BOCC appoints members to fill any Board of Education vacancy for the remainder of the term until a successor is elected and qualified. For a full description of the position visit online.

Individuals interested in applying must submit an application no later than 11:59 p.m., Jan. 2, 2019. Organizations may also submit individuals for consideration. The application is available online at www.calvertcountymd.gov/BOEapplication.

Those interested in applying for appointment must be a Calvert County resident for a minimum of two years and a current resident of the Third Election District before the beginning of the appointed term.

For more information contact Executive Administrative Aide Lisa Tolomei at Lisa.Tolomei@calvertcountymd.gov or call 410-535-1600, ext. 2214.
