The Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation Invites Citizens to Celebrate Spring During Several Seasonal Events

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – May 10, 2019 – Spring is here and the Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation invites citizens to celebrate the season by participating in two exciting events.

Day on the Farm

Hallowing Point Park, 4755 Hallowing Point Road, Prince Frederick
Thursday, May 16 (10:30 a.m.-noon)

Come out and meet miniature horses, goats and chickens. There will be a surprise entertainer and tractors to sit on. The Department of Parks & Recreation will be collecting blankets, towels, food and pet-related items to donate to local animal rescues at this event. Don't forget to bring a camera to capture unforgettable family moments.

Community Block Party

Harriet E. Brown Community Center, 901 Dares Beach Road, Prince Frederick
Saturday, June 1 (2-5 p.m.)

Celebrate the start of summer during a community block party. The party will feature bounce houses, entertainment and activities for all ages. Free drinks and refreshments will be provided. For questions please call 410-535-7080.

For more information or to register for an event, visit online or call 410-535-1600, ext. 2649.
