Breezy Point Beach & Campground Alcohol Restriction Takes Effect Next Week

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Aug. 16, 2019 – Beachgoers planning to visit Breezy Point Beach & Campground next weekend are reminded that, beginning Thursday, Aug. 22, alcohol is prohibited in the park's beach, fishing and picnic areas.

Registered campers may consume beer and wine at their campsites only. Glass containers are not allowed in any area of the park.

This measure is an effort to ensure a safe environment for park guests, minimize disturbances to nearby residents and reduce strain on county resources. The Calvert County Board of County Commissioners adopted a resolution July 23 to restrict alcohol at Breezy Point.

Breezy Point Beach & Campground is operated by the Calvert County Department of Parks & Recreation. More information about the park, including rules and regulations, frequently asked questions and maps, is available online at www.CalvertCountyMd.gov/BreezyPoint.

Citizens can also visit www.facebook.com/BreezyPointBeachPark for regular updates on beach closures, policies, camping information, special events and more.
