Dates, times and locations may be subject to change. The Redistricting Committee held its first meeting Monday, Dec. 20, 2021, during which the committee determined the dates and format of its meetings. The committee intends to come to a conclusive recommendation by the Jan. 28 meeting, but is planning for a tentative Feb. 4 meeting in case further discussion is needed.

Redistricting is the process of changing election district boundaries. The nine-member Redistricting Committee is formed following the decennial census and is charged with reviewing and recommending County Commissioner election districts and boundaries to account for population changes.
