Candidates Sought for the 2025 Compensation Review Board

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Feb. 5, 2025 – The Calvert County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) is seeking applicants to serve on the 2025 Compensation Review Board. This board convenes every four years to provide valuable insight and recommendations to help shape compensation and benefit packages for county officials. Key responsibilities of the board include:

- Salary Review: Evaluate the salaries established by state and local law for county officials
- Benefit Analysis: Examine existing policies and procedures in the county regarding inclusion of benefits and compensation packages for county commissioners
- Recommendations: Provide recommendations for salary adjustments and inclusion of benefits in the commissioners' compensation package

The Compensation Review Board plays a vital role in ensuring compensation packages align with legal standards and meet the evolving needs of county leadership. Serving on the board offers a unique opportunity to shape the policies and decisions that directly affect your community and address local challenges.
