Sixes Road Temporarily Closed

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Dec. 8, 2025 – A temporary road closure is in place at Sixes Road between Folly Lane and Route 231 in Prince Frederick following a hazmat incident earlier today involving a propane truck that was in a traffic accident.

Traffic is being detoured from eastbound Route 231 to Adelina Road and Sixes Road East for through traffic while crews manage the incident and clear the scene. An update will be provided when the road is open.

The Maryland Department of the Environment, Maryland Department of Transportation, highway maintenance crews and volunteer fire departments are on scene for personnel and public safety. There is no threat to the public.
