Election Board Announces Polling Place Change and Candidate Filing Deadline

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Feb. 17, 2026 – The Calvert County Board of Elections approved changes to polling locations and precinct boundaries as part of the 2026 election plan.

At its Nov.19 meeting, the board approved combining Precincts 3-6 and 3-7 into a single precinct, which will be designated as Precinct 3-6. Voters who previously voted at Northern High School, 2950 Chaneyville Rd., Owings, during the 2024 election will now vote at Ward Farm Park, 10455 Ward Rd., Dunkirk.

A permanent building is currently under construction at Ward Farm Park and is scheduled to be completed before June, when the June 23 primary election takes place. Voters in the Dunkirk area affected by this change should look for a new voter notification card in the mail.

The candidate filing deadline is Tuesday, Feb. 24. The Election Board will be open until 9 p.m. that day for local candidates to file. The Calvert County Election Board is located at 30 Duke St., in Prince Frederick. For more information, contact the Election Board at 410-535-2214.
