November in Calvert County, Md.

Oct. 16, 2013

Page 3

Dixon is a historian and writer focusing on the early 1800s when news could only move as fast as someone could physically carry the message. Discussing how news and information were spread when the war came to the region's shores, with a fascinating look at press coverage of the major regional incidents of the War of 1812, he offers a unique historic perspective. A discussion will be facilitated between the presenter and audience after the lecture. This presentation is made possible by the Maryland Humanities Council, Friends of Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum and the Calvert Marine Museum.

Saturday, Nov. 23 (2-3:30 p.m.)
