Calvert County Seeks Applicants Interested in Serving on Advisory Boards and Commissions

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Nov. 26, 2014 –The Board of County Commissioners encourages citizens to provide input on the policies that shape local government.

There are several vacancies to fill on the many boards, commissions and committees that offer Calvert County citizens an avenue to actively participate in the county commissioners' decision-making. These boards deal with health and welfare, social programs, environmental issues, agricultural preservations, economic development, tourism, architectural review, women's issues, elderly issues and others.

Calvert County residents who are registered voters may apply. Applications may be obtained from the Commissioner's Office (175 Main Street, Room A203), any Calvert County public library or online at www.co.cal.md.us/GetInvolved.

Find Calvert County Government on Facebook.
