Solomons Visitor Center Opens Four Days a Week

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – May 5, 2016 – Spring is when visitors begin streaming back to Calvert County for vacations, day trips and a variety of fun activities for the entire family. To help tourists, motorists and boaters with travel plans, directions and general information, Calvert County's visitor information center, located in Solomons, is now open four days a week from May through September.

The visitor center is located at 14175 Solomons Island Road South and is open Thursday through Sunday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. There is knowledgeable staff on hand to provide information about local attractions, hotels, marinas, restaurants and other travel information. Visitors are also encouraged to check out the 2016 Calvert County Visitors Guide online.

For more information about Calvert County visitor sites and attractions, call 410-535-4583, or 301-855-1880; send an email to info@ecalvert.com, or visit online at www.choosecalvert.com. Like Calvert County Government on Facebook.

Calvert County is Maryland's smallest county in land area with 213 square miles. It is home to more than 90,000 people and has one of the highest standards of living in Maryland. Major industries include defense contracting, information technology, tourism, energy, advanced manufacturing and administrative services.
