Calvert County Congratulates New, Relocated and Expanded Businesses

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Oct. 6, 2016 – Even though Calvert County may be one of the smallest counties in Maryland, it is open for businesses of all sizes. Home to unique mom-and-pop specialty stores, some of the nation's top Fortune 500 companies and everything in between, Calvert County is an outstanding location for businesses to start and expand. Join the Calvert County Board of County Commissioners and the Department of Economic Development in congratulating the following new, relocated and expanded businesses.
