WINE & ALE TRAIL

Maryland's smallest county plays a big role when it comes to the fine art of fermentation. Every aspect of the region's charm is on display at our local wineries and breweries. Roam the trail and sample superb wines in a restored tobacco barn or along the banks of a pristine creek. Cold, fresh beer is also part of the Chesapeake Bay lifestyle.

With so many options to choose from, there's something everyone will love in this thriving wine and ale scene. No matter where you go, you will be met with warm hospitality and take home a wealth of memories.
